

ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

HERE AND IN PERSON AT THE
GILL MONTAGUE SENIOR CENTER

TUESDAY, MAY 9TH 1:00 PM

This immersive historical performance will be engaging, educational, and entertaining as Eleanor Roosevelt comes to life.

Using costumes, audio, slides and attention to detail Sheryl tells Eleanor's story as a child, wife, mother, first lady, and widow. This dynamic and beloved first lady who wrote a syndicated newspaper column, held press conferences, was a delegate to the United Nations, and advocated for expanded roles for women is amazingly brought to life.

Faye, who has a bachelor of fine arts in acting from Emerson College in Boston, presents live historical performances that help audiences understand the positive impact women have made in history. She portrays women whom she admires because of their courage, determination,
